) Case No.: 3:11-cv- 00707-HDM-VPC

) STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

) The Honorable Valerie P. Cooke
) United States Magistrate Judge

1 In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties
2 in connection with this case, the parties, by their counsel undersigned, hereby stipulate and agree 3 as follows:

4 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant 5 page or as other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that 6 party or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or 7 confidential business or financial information, or confidential or private information, subject to 8 protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law ("Confidential 9 Information"). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and 10 each page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

11 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 12 in response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the 13 record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
14 Additionally a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt 15 of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that 16 specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as Confidential Information.
17 Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection,
18 the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation 19 made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or 20 information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to 21 the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible 22 for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or 23 control with the specified designation.

24 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 25 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the 26 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.
27
28

1 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this
2 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed 3 to any person other than:

4 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel
5 and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

6 (b) employees of such counsel;

7 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a 8 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

9 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this 10 litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this 11 Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 12 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the 13 pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of 14 the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information and provided that if the 15 party chooses a consultant or expert employed by Engineering Documentation Systems, Inc. or 16 one of its competitors, the party shall notify the opposing party or designating nonparty, before 17 disclosing any Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the opposing party an 18 opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting such disclosure;

19 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

20 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and 21 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)).

22 A witness shall sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document.

23 Confidential Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only 24 in a deposition at which the party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or 25 has been given notice that Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant 26 to paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain 27 copies.

28

1 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 2 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 3 forth herein.

4 6. No party or non-party shall file or submit for filing as part of the court record any 5 documents under seal without first obtaining leave of court. Notwithstanding any agreement 6 among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the 7 presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court.

8 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials 9 produced by a nonparty by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document 10 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 11 discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction 12 any information designated by that party or nonparty as confidential, although a document may 13 lose its confidential status if it is made public.

14 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 15 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
16 The party or nonparty who designated the material shall have thirty (30) days from the receipt of 17 such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as confidential.
18 The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the document is 19 entitled to protection.

20 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
21 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
22 unless and until one of the following occurs:

23 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information 24 withdraws such designation in writing; or

25 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information
26 fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time 27 period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 28 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
